

WEDNESDAY MORNING, VOL. XXXVI, AUGUST 21, 1918.

French Smash Tremendous Success; German Line Cracks from Soissons to Belgium; Immense Booty is Captured

FRENCH AND BRITISH TROOPS BOTH DRIVE ONWARD AS FOE DEFENSES ARE ANNIHILATED

WITH THE FRENCH ARMY IN FRANCE, Aug. 20 (evening).—The operation begun this morning by Gen. Mangin's troops between the Aisne and the Oise, southeast of Noyon and northwest of Soissons, looks this evening to be a splendid success. Gen. Mangin has taken from the Germans at Cuts and Mont de Choix the last heights remaining south of the Oise in that region. At Mont de Choix the French troops are within two and a half miles of the Oise at Pontoise, the direct road to which is now under fire of French guns.

Carlepoint, to the southwest, also is in the hands of the French tonight, and from this place their guns command another road to the Oise at Sempigny, directly south of Noyon.

Gen. Mangin, with his right solidly on the heights north of the Aisne around Fontenoy, is sweeping the Germans off the high ground south of the Oise, obliging them to retreat across the river or retire eastward. In either event the success of the movement will expose the region about Noyon to artillery attacks from the south, the southeast and the southwest.

The Germans are fighting hard against this danger, relying principally upon machine guns, as in the Thiescourt region, thus indicating that some of their artillery already is across or is on the way across the River Oise. The count of prisoners and inventory of the booty taken still are incomplete. One corps in this operation had counted 1500 prisoners up to noon and had immense quantities of captured war materials of all sorts.

8000 HUN PRISONERS TAKEN.

PARIS, Aug. 20.—The French forces fighting east of the Oise, on a front of about fifteen and one-half miles, have advanced to an average depth of about two and a half miles and captured numerous villages, according to the French official communication issued this evening. More than 8000 prisoners have been taken. South of Roye the town of Beauvraignes has been occupied by the French, after bitter fighting.

ARTILLERY POUNDS YANKS.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON THE VESLE FRONT, Aug. 20 (7 p.m.).—The operations of the Germans between Soissons and Rheims since the French began their offensive northwest of Soissons have been characterized by a slightly increased use of artillery and a decrease in aerial activity. There have been no alterations of any importance in positions along the Vesle front.

The nature of the German artillery fire apparently would indicate a stabilized line north of the Vesle, but no permanent trenches have yet been discovered, which tends to support the theory that the enemy still intends to recross the Aisne. Meanwhile the German line is being subjected to almost constant artillery shelling by the Americans and French.

The prisoner taken yesterday was a German private while he told the German officers that the Boche Americans killed all prisoners.

"Why, yes," replied the German officer, "Don't you tell your men the same things about the Germans?"

Summary of Battle on West Front

(United War Bureau by the Associated Press.)
From Soissons to the Belgian border the German armies in various important sectors are being put to the test by the French and British. And it is a test that seemingly bodes ill for the Teutonic army, for nowhere have they been able to sustain the shocks.

Northwest of Soissons, from the Aisne to the Oise, north of the Oise to the region around Roye, in the Arras sector and northward on the famous Lys salient, the Germans everywhere have been compelled to fall back under the pressure of the French and British troops. In a new offensive launched by the French, Gen. Mangin, over a front of approximately fifteen and a half miles from Balloy, on the Oise, to the Aisne, the French in bitter fighting have carried forward their line to an average depth of two and a half miles, and in the first phase of the battle had turned to French possession numerous enemy-held villages and farms. In addition, more than 8000 Germans had been herded behind the line prisoner.

At last reports Mangin's men were still hard after the enemy and unofficial accounts placed the French on various sectors well in advance of the positions outlined in the French official communication.

Along the Scarpe, east of Arras, Field Marshal Haig's forces kept up their harassing tactics against the enemy, who has been compelled to fall back eastward along the Scarpe River. The Germans resisted vigorously, but all to no purpose, and the British advanced their line to the east of the village of Pampou. Although Haig claims only a slight forward movement here, particularly significant toward Valenciennes, eight miles southeast of Noyon.

Further to the right, Tartieres, two and a half miles southeast of Morlain, was entered at 9 o'clock and columns of prisoners began to appear upon the plateau to the rear. The artillery reaction was very weak over this part of the front.

French aviators, flying way down under the low-lying clouds, kept the staff regularly informed as to the progress of the attack and harassed the enemy with machine-gun fire. No German flyers tried to interfere with their work.

The Germans made a desperate defense in the hilly and wooded region south of the Oise around Carlepoint, Calmes and Lombard, where they held strong positions which were profusely dotted with quick fires. The Four-a-Verre and Croisettes farm were taken by the French after a violent struggle, which proved very costly to the enemy.

At noon the line had been advanced to the road east of Carlepoint to the Calmes Wood and Bellefontaine, and south of Lombard and Blerandocelle to Vassens, and then southward to the east of Tartieres and to Oisy.

French Crush Hun Line in One Hour's Fighting.

BY WALTER DURANT.

(ATLANTIC CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
THE FRENCH ARMY, Aug. 20 (night).—It is known already that several thousand prisoners have been taken in fighting between the Aisne and the Oise. The enemy has been seen retreating in the region of the Vesle and Bourguignoncourt road. Generally speaking the German reaction has been weak and their resistance nil.

At about 4 o'clock in the morning the French line there is evidence that the Germans have been repulsed and that their resistance was nil. The French line there is evidence that the Germans have been repulsed and that their resistance was nil.

Large Reinforcements of American and Entente Troops to Support Czecho-Slovaks

ALLIED ARMY OF MILLION MEN URGED FOR SIBERIA.

Thirteenth Division at Camp Lewis is Expected to Form Contingent to Go from United States.

BY ROBERT B. ARMSTRONG. (EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—More troops are to go to Russia from the United States. To get more troops into Russia is one of the reasons for the return of Lord Reading to London. Demands are coming in by cable daily at the State Department for more and more troops, and it is the wish of the Allies that enough aid be given to the Czecho-Slovak troops to make resistance by the Huns now in Russia improbable and later impossible. An Allied army of 1,000,000 men, including Czecho-Slovaks, is urged.

All the United States troops in the Philippines that can be spared are already in Russia or Siberia, or are on the way, and the dispatch of the troops in their origin, will delay the dispatch of some of the Japanese troops for a time, at least. That more troops of the United States are to go to Russia and Siberia has been decided, but the number has not been settled. But informed army men here believe that the new Thirteenth Division now at Camp Lewis, in which there are many California men, will be the first body to be sent to the Far East, and many events here sustain such a belief.

That the shipping board is preparing for a large shipment of troops on the Pacific is certain, but only and other preparations depend on the final word of the President.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Information reaching Washington today indicated that assistance being sent to the Czecho-Slovak troops in the Balkan region of Siberia will reach them in the near future. The dispatch of the troops is being expedited, and it is expected that they will be in the hands of the Czecho-Slovak troops in the near future.

HAIG'S TROOPS CHASE GERMAN.

has suffered greatly, especially from the Allied artillery. The initiative having passed from the Germans, the position ceased to be of value to them. Merrill, of course, has been entered, and the Allied patrols by this time have operated some distance beyond it.

South of the River Somme the enemy artillery has quieted down, and the situation here for the moment seems to have become calm. By withdrawing their forces in the Merrill sector of the front, the Germans definitely have given up one of the points from which a drive for Calais logically would be launched. This is taken to indicate that the German high command has abandoned hope of reaching the coast and now is chiefly concerned with getting the German lines back to a place of greater security.

While the Germans managed to penetrate the British positions in two points, they were quickly hurled out, and the line was completely restored. Not a single foot of ground was lost in the last few days, and last night the positions of the enemy were of Bray were successfully raided.

Every day now some new document of evidence comes to light showing either the weakening of the morale of the German army or the anxiety of its leaders.

The latest is a step to make the soldiers cease whining when writing home, as it is considered by the German commanders to be had for home.

It is a captured secret order issued by the commander of the Second Army. He stated a special examination of home-going mails discloses a disregard for the army postal regulations. Aside from disclosing the exact location of units, many of the soldiers have told of "successes" of the enemy.

The destruction of trains by Entente aircraft has been mentioned.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Overcrowded trains and unsatisfactory passenger service in some sections of the country are caused by the necessity of using many day coaches and sleeping cars for troop transportation and by the heavy burden of hauling war supplies.

RANDALL ATTACKED OUR ALLIES, FLOWERS SHOWS.

Proves by Congressional Record that Incumbent Wears Hearst Stripes.

Confirmed.
EIGHT months after the United States declared war, Charles H. Randall, the ultra-pacifist Congressman of the Ninth district, delivered a speech in the House of Representatives in which he accused the people of war-racked Belgium with atrocities equal to those of the Kaiser. He also attacked the English people in a most vicious and uncalled-for manner.

Last night before a large crowd at the Glendale High School, Monteville Flowers, the only Republican candidate who has a chance to beat the pacifist, read from the Congressional Record that part of Randall's insulting and unpatriotic speech.

According to the record, the trustworthiness of which cannot be denied, Randall said of the Belgians:
"Today we are engaged in a gigantic struggle to avenge the wrongs of Belgium—and those wrongs ought to be avenged. But only a few years ago the Belgians went down in East Africa, under their vicious old King Leopold, cutting off the hands of the little African children because their parents did not bring in the raw rubber fast enough to suit the greed of the Belgian King."

CHALLENGER CHARGE.
"In this sentence our Representative accuses the Belgians of performing the same kind of atrocities which the Germans performed in Belgium," said Mr. Flowers. "I do not believe that it is true; it certainly has not been established as the truth, and as one of the residents of the Ninth Congressional District, I am not willing to stand any share of the responsibility in making such a declaration against the Belgian people at any time, much less at this time, while they are suffering allied.

"A little farther on in the same speech, speaking of the use of liquor in England, our Representative in Congress used the following sentence against the English people:
"The story of England's shame, when the world finally reads history, will shock all civilized people."

"Whatever may be the private faults of our greatest ally, if she have any—this is neither the time nor is the Congress of the United States the place to dilate upon them."
"These facts and statements being in the Congressional Record and submitted to you by Mr. Randall for his claim upon your votes, I submit to you—take you what course you will."

CHARACTERISTIC PACIFISM.
"In another campaign document, distributed in July, Mr. Randall speaks from an address made in the House as your Representative on December 7, 1917, in which he speaks the whole theory of pacifism and stands against the whole principle of war."

"War breeds war. Thus we see even now an ominous demand for compulsory universal military training in this country, and this can mean nothing but the rapid development of a militaristic nation. War will never end on this planet until the nations sink their battleships and destroy their armies."
"This declaration was made eight months after we had declared war, while we were straining every effort to create a great army, and in itself a clear-cut declaration against any state of preparedness for war or any training of a military nature after this war begins."
[And Randall is the kind of man that pacifists of the Ninth Congress district and Hearst would retain in Washington.—Ed. Times.]

AFTER AUTO CHASE.

Two Held on Charge of Burglaring Garages and Supply Houses.
Arrest "Go-between."

After an automobile chase across the Nevada desert, Walter A. Suhr and Gilbert Furrow were lodged in the County Jail yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Anderson charged with burglary in connection with recent raids on garages and automobile supply houses in Los Angeles.

Dick Richards, proprietor of a Twelfth-street supply store, is under arrest, also, accused of being a "go-between" in disposing of goods alleged to have been stolen by Suhr and Furrow.
Suhr was overtaken by the deputy sheriff and arrested at Nippon, Nev., close to the California line. Burrow was taken into custody at Las Vegas.

Capt. H. T. Esterbrook of the Exposition Park Home Guards was elected chairman of the executive board of the Rev. Hill, I. W. and Revolver Club, and First Lieutenant R. A. Brainard of the guards was elected president at a meeting of club members, Monday evening at the Armory. The club now has 200 members. E. D. Troutman was elected vice-president of the club; W. E. WOOLWINE WINS VOTES BY DENOUNCING I.W.W.

Former Judge Bordwell Delares Stephens Can't Inaugurate Retrenchment.

CONTINUING his fearless attack upon the I.W.W. and all other lawless elements, forming them as traitors to this country, Thomas Lee Woolwine, the South's Democratic candidate for Governor, is making a fine impression throughout the State. In Monterey last night Mr. Woolwine had the following to say of Heney:
"I find that Heney's acrobatic political career is well known throughout the State. The Democrats have not forgotten his opposition to President Wilson in 1912 and his bitter condemnation of the Democratic party in 1916."

Yesterday Mrs. Thomas Lee Woolwine, the wife of the Democratic candidate for Governor, the Democratic women of California will elect her husband.

Mrs. Woolwine concluded her work in the north to assist the Woolwine workers here in their preparation for the big Woolwine-for-Governor rally at the Trinity Auditorium Friday night.
"I do not think I am exaggerating when I say 90 per cent. of the Democratic women of Northern California are for Mr. Woolwine," she said. "My husband has made a wonderful impression among them. The women hold the balance of political power in this State at the present time, and their friendly attitude toward Mr. Woolwine is a factor which insures his nomination."

Fickert at San Diego.

"The captain who deserts his company in the field of battle is not more contemptible than the traitor who betrays the civil officer who, because of threats of physical violence or through fear of losing the radical votes, fails to do his sworn duty," said Charles M. Fickert, Republican candidate for Governor, at San Diego yesterday.

"If it was right for us to go to war with the Hun because of sinking of the Lusitania we have just the same right to make war on the enemies of government here at home—the enemy within our gates, the traitors, the I.W.W. and the government officer who is afraid to risk his life in the performance of his duty. While the younger men are abroad facing death, has no business in the service of the people."

He was speaking about the many threats made against his life because of the prosecution of Thomas J. Mooney, by the same gang who murdered Dist. Atty. Maxwell and Sheriff Reardon of Butte county. He charged that Stephens' plan for 100 per cent. Americanism lacked force while he had in the employ of the State, in important positions, traitors and I.W.W. leaders like J. Vance Thompson of the Immigration and Housing Commission and Thomas O. McElwain, State Attorney General. He struck at State extravagance and said he was unequivocally opposed to compulsory State health insurance.

In the morning he spoke at San Juan Capistrano, Oceanside and La Jolla. A reception was held in San Diego in the afternoon and Mayor Wilde and many other prominent people made a call. He visited Kearny and in the evening spoke at Escondido.

Retrenchment the Issue.

"It is utterly impossible for Gov. Stephens to accomplish retrenchment in State finances," declared Judge Walter Bordwell, candidate for Republican nomination for Governor, in a noonday address to employees of the Boyle Manufacturing Company.

"Gov. Stephens is a product of the system that has fastened upon California the impossible and unnecessary and overlapping commissions, and that system cannot reform itself from within. The Governor has his political life in an atmosphere ruled by commissions which supply fat jobs to useless office-holders, and it is ridiculous to expect that he could do anything to rid the State of such a condition."

"Retrenchment is the dominant issue in this campaign, and I have made my fight up and down the State on my pledge to stop the waste and extravagance in State finances. Unless I am very much mistaken, the voters of the State will voice their approval of my stand at the coming primaries."

Judge Bordwell arrived yesterday from San Francisco and San Jose, well pleased with the situation in the central and northern parts of the State. He reports a successful trip through the San Joaquin Valley.

"The general situation throughout the State is a mixed one," stated Judge Bordwell. "The conservative elements of San Francisco are working for the defeat of Rolph. They do not want to see San Francisco's experience with him repeated in the State government."

Judge Bordwell will be in San Diego today and tomorrow he will be in Imperial Valley and Friday in San Bernardino and Riverside, ending the day with addresses at Orange and Santa Ana.

Luncheon for Fickert.

At a luncheon to be given in his honor at the Union League Club tomorrow, Charles M. Fickert, Republican candidate for Governor, will deliver a stirring speech. He will give his own views of the Mooney case and describe how the I.W.W. have terrorized California. President Casselman of the club will preside at the luncheon.

Indorsed by Attorneys.

Presiding Judge Charles Wellborn, who is a candidate for re-election, has been strongly indorsed by the leading members of the bar, and he is making a winning campaign. Judge Wellborn has been on the bench six years, and prior to that was a member of the Police Commission.

Reception for Governor.

The gardens of the beautiful Rafta home, No. 729 Hollywood boulevard, were thronged yesterday afternoon, when the Women's Campaign Committee of the Stephens-for-Governor Club were hostesses at an outdoor reception and political meeting given in honor of Gov. and Mrs. Stephens.

A feature of the afternoon, in addition to the Governor's patriotic address, was singing of the Allies' national songs by soloists in native costume. Although the Governor refrained from talking politics, Mrs. Florence Collins Porter, who introduced him, and Frank P. Flint did not miss the chance to say strong Politics.

Stevens for Judge.

To further the campaign of C. J. McCormick, who is a candidate for Supervisor of the Third District, an open political meeting is to be held tomorrow evening at 8:30 o'clock at the home of former Councilwoman Estelle Lawton Lindsey, No. 2416 Echo Park avenue. The hostess will preside and Mr. McCormick is to speak. He will, in addition, be the speaker at a meeting of the city employees Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in Burbank Hall, Sixth and Main streets.

Henry J. Stevens, candidate for Judge of the Superior Court, has received the following noteworthy indorsement:
Dear Sir: The undersigned, members of the bar of Los Angeles, have heard with great satisfaction of your willingness to become a candidate for the position of Superior Judge in and for this county.

Being fully acquainted with your standing as an able and fearless lawyer, we congratulate your election to this county upon its opportunity to avail themselves of your services and ability as a Judge.
Knowing your years of experience before all the courts of the State, that you have shown yourself an able advocate, a wise counselor, and of irreproachable integrity, we do not hesitate to recommend you for the favorable suffrages of our fellow-citizens.

BOY IS SET FREE.

No Evidence Found to Connect 15-year-old with Theft of Diamond Ring.

Following an investigation by Juvenile Officer Edwards, John Willard Brunt, 15 years old, arrested several days ago on suspicion of having stolen a $200 diamond ring and given it as an engagement token to a 12-year-old girl, was released by the police when neither the ring nor any evidence connecting the boy with the alleged theft could be found.

The girl's story that young Brunt had given her a ring was magnified by numerous repetitions. Mrs. Brunt says, until it loomed as a possible solution of Sawtelle's diamond ring mystery. John did have several cheap toy rings, his mother said, but did not give any diamond rings to anybody.
